We are currently looking for works that involve Fiber Arts. They may include but are not limited to: basketry, beadwork, braiding, clothing design, crochet, fiber dyeing, embroidery, wool felting, rug hooking, knitting, lacework, mixed media, needlework, paper, quilting, sculpture, sewing, spinning, surface design, textile design, and weaving.

- Artists must submit an Artists Biography along with works.
- Artists may submit a maximum of 3 pieces.
- Only submit original works; no commercially produced pieces will be accepted. Works created by a commercially produced pattern or book will not be accepted. We ask that any quilts or fiber wall art have a maximum circumference of 200 inches.
- All pieces must be complete and ready for hanging by the specified guidelines upon arrival. No unfinished works will be accepted for the show. All work for hanging must have a hanging sleeve on the back of the piece. Sleeves must be attached 2 inches down from the top of the piece and 1 ½ inches in from the sides. The sleeves must be at least 2 ½ inches wide.
- All works must include the following information: Title, Medium, Year Completed, Brief Description, Dimensions, and Price.
- We encourage works that are for sale but will accept no more than one piece per artist for display only. When a total of 5 display only pieces are submitted, no others will be accepted.
- Works for sale must be priced with the understanding that the Red Door Art Gallery does take a 30% commission on all sales. The commission must be included in your price. Include a detailed and clear inventory of all works for our records.
- All works will be reviewed by the RDAG Committee. The gallery does reserve the right to exclude any artwork that does not meet the standards set by the gallery's Collections and Exhibitions Committee.
- RDAG reserves the curatorial discretion for all placement, lighting, display, and all other aspects of the exhibition of works.
- Artist Contract and Consignment Agreement must be signed before art will be accepted or exhibited.
