Rachel Loberg

Wahpeton High Senior Rachel Loberg is a newbie to art classes in school, having previously taken only one semester of art before. However, she is no stranger to the arts. As she says, “[I] still did art at home throughout the years.” Rachel likes art because it’s a great way to let loose and let your imagination take you places. Her favorite medium is acrylic paint. Other activities that Rachel enjoys include track, dance, band, and she enjoys reading in her free time. After college, Rachel plans on earning a Master’s Degree in Elementary Education from MSUM and aspires to be an elementary teacher.
